PROCLAMATION

1958 Farm Broadcasting Day

February 1, 1958

WHEREAS: Radio and Television Farm Broadcasting serves rural America, contributing to the agricultural development of the nation by providing special programs of important farm news, market reports, and up-to-the-minute weather information; and

WHEREAS: The Broadcasting Stations of America have recognized the importance to the nation and its economy of the needs of the agricultural community and their development; and

WHEREAS: Farm Broadcasting serves rural America by reaching even the most remote farm families with vital agricultural information as well as the finest in music, variety and drama drawn from all parts of entertainment;

Now, Therefore, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the day of February 1, 1958 as:

and call on all citizens of this state to give recognition to the achievements of radio and television stations and to encourage the broadcasters in serving the agricultural community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 21 day of January 1958.
